

Annual end-of-year event for the Psychoanalytic Observational Studies programme at Alder Hey Children's Hospital in Liverpool

ATTACHMENT, ALTRUISM AND STRESS

Graham Music, Tavistock & Portman NHS Foundation Trust

Graham is the author of Nurturing Natures: Attachment and Children's Emotional, Sociocultural and Brain Development, published by Psychology Press in 2011.

Graham Music is a Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist and Associate Clinical Director at the Tavistock & Portman NHS Foundation Trust in London. His main clinical interests are in developing services in community settings such as schools, and in working with children who are looked after or adopted.

Graham will explore and present ideas from his clinical practice integrating the latest research findings from areas such as attachment theory, neuroscience and developmental psychology, contributing to the understanding of children's emotional development.

When: Thursday 4th July 2013, 2.00pm – 4.00pm

Cost: Current M7L Students: Free
Non Students: £10

Where: Lecture Theatre, Education Centre, Alder Hey Children's Hospital.

The event will be chaired by Julie Boardman Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist and Course Organising Tutor for the Psychoanalytic Observational Studies Course in Liverpool, supported by a panel of members of the tutor group. Julie trained at the Tavistock Clinic in London and works in the North West in both community and inpatient settings. Julie is also an external examiner and verifier for the Tavistock & Portman and the Scottish Institute of Human Relations.

This event is held in collaboration with the Northern School of Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy in celebration of their 10th year Anniversary
