

A FREE EVENT TO INTRODUCE
PSYCHOANALYTIC OBSERVATIONAL STUDIES

Thursday 8th May 2008 at 6 – 7.30pm

At the University Department of Child Mental Health, 1st Floor, Mulberry House, Alder Hey Children's Hospital, Eaton Road, Liverpool, L12 2AP

An opportunity to meet the Course Organiser and teaching staff from the programme and to find out about the PG Dip/MA in Psychoanalytic Observational Studies* and other NSCAP training and CPD activities

The part time PG Dip/MA in Psychoanalytic Observational Studies is a course designed for nurses, psychologists, child and adolescent psychiatrists, occupational therapists, primary mental health workers, social workers, teachers and allied professional disciplines.

- Continuing Professional Development for CAMHS workers and others
- Higher degree for professionals seeking career enhancement
- Pre-clinical requirement for full clinical training in child and adolescent psychotherapy
- Some individual modules can be taken by those not wanting to enrol for the academic award

PLEASE CONTACT: The Course Administrator, Northern School of Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy, 71-75 Clarendon Road, Leeds' LS2 9PL. Tel: 0113 343 4868 TO REGISTER YOUR INTEREST.

*The Masters/PG Dip in Psychoanalytic Observational Studies in Liverpool is a Tavistock Clinic course, accredited by the University of East London, and managed by the Northern School of Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy with support from the University Department of Child Mental Health, Alder Hey.

For further information please call us on 0113 343 4868 or visit www.nscap.org.uk