Course outline

NSCAP and the Donald Meltzer Development fund are pleased to host the fourth year of the Study Group, open to qualified Child & Adolescent and Adult Psychoanalytic Psychotherapists wishing to deepen their understanding of Kleinian and post-Kleinian psychoanalytic theories and their application to clinical practice.

This year the study group will continue working through "The Kleinian Development" and explore Bion's "Elements of Psychoanalysis". "Transformations" and "Attention and Interpretation" as a background towards understanding the development of Dr Meltzer's original thinking in his published work. We'll also read Meltzer's "The Psychoanalytical Process" and "Sexual States of Mind".

Learning outcomes

The overall aim of the study group is to become familiar with post-Kleinian psychoanalytic theory as documented in Meltzer's 'The Kleinian Development' and in his own books. Links between theory and practice will be made through discussions of participants' experiences from clinical practice, when appropriate.

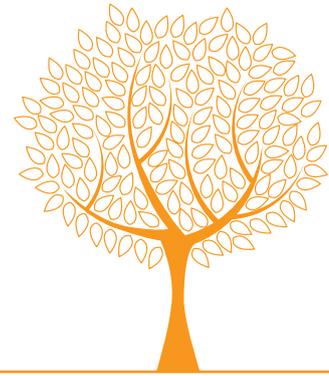

By the end of the study group participants will be able to:

1. Enrich their understanding of Bion's findings regarding mental development, psychopathology and the psycho-analytical method
2. Follow the development of Kleinian's psychoanalysis along the trajectory Freud-Klein-Bion
3. Understand Dr Meltzer's development of psychoanalysis

Certificates for CPD will be issued
