

“I want to be a better...”

... community worker, family support worker, foster carer, nursery worker, play leader, social work assistant, learning mentor, teaching assistant, early years worker, probation officer, clinician, social worker, teacher, youth worker, nurse, doctor, manager, counsellor, psychologist, therapist...

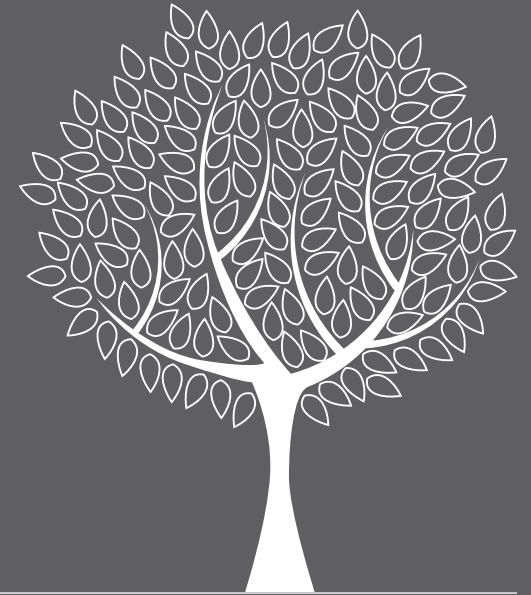

“ This course has been instrumental and hopefully career changing. As rich an experience as I could wish for.”

Feedback from Leeds Psychoanalytic Observational Studies PG Dip/Masters

“ I have found these observations extremely enlightening. I have learned so much through my own emotions and responses.”

Feedback from Leeds Personality Development Seminars

Open Evening

What is it:

NSCAP

Open Evening For:

- PGDip/Masters in Psychoanalytic Observational Studies
- Short Courses including Personality Development Across the Life Cycle

When is it:

Thursday 18th January 2024
6.00pm - 7.30pm

Where is it:

The event will take place via zoom.

An opportunity to discover how studying at NSCAP can help you develop your professional practice and your career working with infants, children, adolescents and families.

Featuring:

- Welcome to NSCAP
- An introduction to the Psychoanalytic Observational Studies programme
- An introduction to the Personality Development (PD) Series
- Hearing from current students and tutors
- Questions and Answers

To register your place please email:

nscapadmin.lypft@nhs.net